REBEKAHS ARE NOW SOLE OWNERS OF SPLENDID PIANO

After many moons, the members of the Degree of Rebekah in town have accomplished their objective in the purchase of a piano for their lodgeroom, and their success is all the more worthy of praise from the fact that this has been made possible by united effort on the part of the members themselves in the staging of whist drives, social evenings, etc.

The final rally for this cause was the "Hard times" dance held on Friday last, and this proved to be the "daddy of them all," for possibly the most enjoyable time of all their different gatherings was experienced.

The orchestra under Bandmaster Stott, who so kindly donated their services for the occasion, was at its best, the floor was A. 1., and the large crowd at its best good nature, and Floor-manager Goulet was out to please all.

The members of the "eats" committee excelled in their province, and the supplies for the delightful supper were overwhelmingly profuse; so much so indeed, that the "boys" from the oil well, were able to assist in the final wiping out of the piano debt by buying and re-selling numbers of cakes which were auctioned off.

The several committees handling the affair take this opportunity of extending their thanks for all the assistance received, and especially to the orchestra and the "oil well boys!"

LITTLE ROBBIE DAVIS PASSES AWAY AFTER PNEUMONIA ATTACK

On Saturday afternoon last amid many expressions of neighborly sympathy the mortal remains of "Robbie" the only son of Mr and Mrs E. Davis of Fifth Avenue who died from penumonia on Thursday last were laid to rest in Wainwright cemetery.

A short but impressive service was conducted in the home by the Rev. N. F. Priestley. Four boys acted as pall-bearers—Elmer Merrick, Alec Horn, Mason Steel and William Rosholt, while Jack Alderman, Albert Alderman and Philip Wilkins carried flowers. The undertaking arrangements were in the hands of Mr. J. C. McLeod.

The little life which has just passed out to the Great Beyond where there is no pain, had endured much suffering having for seven long years been attended night and day by the self-sacrificing mother. "Robbie" was never able to do anything for himself. Latterly he had been able to make his mother and father understand some of his wants, and had come to appreciate the attentions of little friends.

All who have known the little fellow and his parents sympathize with them in their bereavement; yet feel that it is in the wise providence of God that he should be relieved of his suffering.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

We are not responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents

Mr Editor—

The days of Spring are again with us when a young man's thoughts turn to sport and recreation. We have all enjoyed the games of hockey this winter and saw with envious eyes the display of physical prowess. Now the long evenings are coming along and why not some sport that is equally as interesting to both players and onlookers. Baseball and tennis we are assured of but both these games do not appeal to all and the cost of the upkeep these days is almost prohibitive to many; so why not football. We have the material for several teams and once played the player never loses his enthusiasm. The cost is very little and we have a splendid field in the fair grounds. Here's hoping to see a football team here this summer. Every town of importance has its soccer team why not Wainwright?

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

Roses white and roses red
For the bride just one year wed
Five years wed—'tis understood
Prety present of all wood.
Ten, with jollity and din,
Come the treasures made of tin.
Twelve means linen soft and sheer
Fifteen, crystal bright and clear
Twenty, dishes patterned gray
For the china wedding day.
Twenty-five comes clear and shining,
All its clouds have silver lining.
Thirty, is the year of pearls
For the loveliest of girls.
Forty is of amber mellow,
Fifty is of gold so yellow.
Sixty years together spent—
Rubies red and sweet content,
Seventy fifth anniversary,
Comes the diamond jubillee.

BIG BEAN FEAST HELD BY LADIES ST. ANDREW'S CH.

Everyone worked with might and main on Saturday last at the old Beaudry store, when the members of the Presbyterian L. A. put on a regular oldtime bean feast from noon until six o'clock.

There was sure loads of edibles besides the beans, and pies, and cakes, and jellies, and salads, and everything else that a bachelor dreams of, were gotten away with in great shape by the many who patronised this effort of the indefatigable ladies.

Such an effort deserved lots of support and that this was forth coming was amply proved by the splendid report of the exchequer end of the affair, no less than $93 being taken in. One or two of the bachelor farmers claim that these affairs 'don't come often enough!'

The members of the C.G.I.T. class under Miss H. Tory are arranging for big doings in the Oddfellows' Hall on the evening of Friday March 31st. Watch for further announcement.

Everything worth while seems to visit Wainwright, and on Monday a truly alarming celestial phenomena was visible in the form of a full triple "sun-dog" with one of the refractions taking an exactly opposite curve. Some curio, we'll say!

* * *

Mr John Campbell, who has only recently arrived from the Old Country and who is a brother of Mr Campbell, at Edgerton, started his duties as "junior" in the Merchants bank on Monday.

We learn that a lantern lecture and social evening will be given in Trafalgar schoolhouse on Tuesday evening next when a hearty invitation is extended to be present.

MAE MARSH IS REAL SCREAM IN "NOBODY'S KID"

One of the best comedy-dramas of the year is "Nobody's Kid," the new Robertson-Cole production, starring Mae Marsh, which is at the Elite theatre Friday and Saturday. Katherine Carr and Howard Hickman are responsible for the scenario which was adapted from Kate Langley Bosher's popular novel, "Mary Cary." Miss Marsh is at her best in the sympathetic role of Mary.

The story is placed in an orphan asylum, where Mary, because of her bobbling spirits and failure to observe the strict discipline of the institution, has won the enmity of the superintendent and trustees. Mary is not malicious but full of fun. As the story develops Mary finds life more and more unbearable.

About the time Mary decides that she will run away from her tormentors, an angel in the form of a nurse appears at the old asylumn and her outlook on life changes. Later she discovers she has a wealthy uncle in Detroit and writes him for aid.

SHIP SEED GRAIN ON CERTIFICATE PLAN

Arrangements with respect to special rates on seed grain shipments are similar to those which have been in effect for the past few years. A system of certificates will be used and the farmers wishing to take advantage of the special rates on seed grain should apply to the Secretary of the U.F.A. for these certificates, a supply of which can be obtained from the provincial secretary of the U.F.A. Calgary.

NOVEMBER IS DATE SET FOR PASSING OF INCOME TAX

It has been announced that there will be a fall session of the legislature, probably in November, for the purpose of passing upon a provincial income tax. The members will not be paid extra indemnity for this special session, it is announced.

The Budget Speech

Premier Greenfield delivered his first budget speech in the legislature Monday last, and was the only speaker. There was no debate. During the week the estimates were taken up and passed.

The budget statement showed that there had been a deficit on current account for 1921 of $2,022,367, the total current revenue having been $9,064,569. and the expenditure having been $11,086,936. Outstanding revenue still to be collected for 1921 and previously, totals $5,249,992. The total debt of the province had increased a total of $17,961,730 during 1921, the total debt at the end of last year having been $59,010,256.

The estimated current revenue for the coming year was placed at $14,474,560.91, and the estimated expenditure at $14,747,402.88, leaving a deficit of $272,841.97.

To provide for estimated deficits, new taxes will be imposed as follows:

Gasoline—2 cents a gallon by consumer (Premier Greenfield announced that the government would undertake an investigation of the price of gasoline)

Amusements— Additional 2½ cents on tickets from 10c to $2.00.

Coal—Additional 5 cents a ton Corporations tax also to be increased. The assets of the province total $165,648,682.

The new taxes, it is estimated will bring in $928,000 more to the provincial secretary's department. The attorney general's department is expected to bring in $1,615,000 more than last year. From School lands the government expects an increase of $209,474.

During his speech the premier referred to the great necessity of improving market facilities for agricultural industry, and of securing reduction in freight rates.

Expenditures for the coming year are to be reduced from those of last year, the estimated public works expenditure being $317,000 less than 1921, and the vote for general administrative purposes has been reduced. The Health department vote has been increased by $824,000 chiefly by reason of the department having taken over the administration of the Ponoka hospital and other institutions.

During the week amendments to the dairymen's act, which provide for the elimination of cream buying stations, were passed, a division being taken on third reading and the vote being 28 to 20. It is estimated that the elimination of the cream stations will save the industry $150,000 a year in addition to making it possible to greatly improve the quality of the product, since the cream will be graded at the creameries by the government graders.

The amendments to the women's institutes were discussed in committee of the whole. The act seeks to eliminate the minister of agriculture as a controlling or directing factor in the institutes, and substitutes an advisory board to be elected at the annual convention of the institutes. In the past the institutes have had the sole right to extension work in the way of special courses in home economics and so forth. The amendments will extend this right to all organizations. The act also gives poyer for the appointment of the necessary officers for

MORE EVIDENCE OF OIL BEARING SANDS WAIN. DISTRICT

For the past two weeks Mr I. W. Fewell, who is farming on Sec 23-45-7w4, has been drilling for water, and now that he is down exactly 100 feet he has obtained a supply of aqua (but not pura!) which is so highly impregnated with oil that a thick scum shows on the top of the liquid at all times, this being of so inflammable a nature that it will burn at the touch of a match while still floating on the water, leaving a white residue. On Monday last several credible witnesses obtained samples of the mixture and made many tests and all with the same results.

The location of this new well is just four miles from town and three miles east of the Imperial Oil Co's well at Fabyan.

LIQUOR AMENDMENTS IN FARLIAMENT

Amendments to the liquor act, which will tend to strengthen the hands of the government in providing for a stricter enforcement of the act, have been introduced by the attorney-general, Mr. Brownlee. In brief, the amendments are as follows:

No change in the principle of the present act.

Government by proclamation may open dispensaries at such places as they think advisable.

Drug stores will be permitted to continue sale of liquor until government dispensaries are established after which they may sell only by six-ounce botttle on prescription.

Incorporated drug stores subject to same responsibilities as those not incorporated.

Penalties for unlawful possession of liquor other than in a common dwelling, increased in minimum from $20 to $50.

ANNUAL RETURNS OF CROPS AND LIVE STOCK, 1922

Special Notice To Farmers

Following the plans successfully adopted during the past four years, under arrangements made between the Dominion and Provincial Governments, returns are annually collected throughout Canada of the areas sown to the principal field crops and of the numbers of farm live stock by means of cardboard schedules filled up by individual farmers. The returns thus collected form the basis of the Annual Agricultural Statistics of the Dominion. To obtain statistics that are accurate and trustworthy, the co-operation is necessary of every farmer and stock owner in the Dominion.

Individual returns are not divulged, and the returns are not used for purposes of taxation.

For 1922, copies of a cardboard schedule, to be filled up by every farmer who receives it, will be distributed and collected during June next through the agency of the Rural School teachers and children, except in British Columbia, where the cards will be mailed to farmers direct. Any farmer who does not receive a blank schedule by the middle of June is requested to apply for same to the Teachers of the School Section in which he resides and to complete and return it in accordance with the directions printed thereon.

Brief Reasons why farmers Should Fill up the Simple Form Required

Because, you can help the Government to obtain statistics that are accurate and reliable.

Because, you may understand better how to regulate your own course of cultivation and stock-raising.

Because, farmers occasionally require financial credit from their bankers, who will not extend credit without knowledge of the security afforded by crop prospects and crop yields.

Because, those who market your products, without whom your cultivation is fruitless, must be accurately informed of conditions; so that they may sell to the best advantage in your interests as well as their own.

THE EXAMINER'S WEEKLY REVIEW OF PROVINCIAL MARKETS

Thursday, March 16, 1922.

Beef—Prices on light steers at Edmonton have moved up a little this week, and with light receipts are quoted as heavy weighs. Choice steers $6@$6.50; good steers, $5@$5.50; medium, $4@$4.50; common, $2.50@$3. Choice cows, $4½$4.50; good, $3.50@$4; medium, $3@ $3.50; common, $2@$2.50; canners, $1.25@$1.75. Choice heifers up to $5. Bulls unchanged, with best at $2.50@$3; common down to $1.25. Calves choice $6@$7; common, $3@$4; few make up to $8. Feeders and Stockers— Demand improving, with prices about at last week; choice heavy feeders around $4.25 stocker steers, $3@$3.50. Stocker heifers around $3.50 for best and down to $2.50.

HOGS

Edmonton prices have been slipping in line with other markets, and this week down to up to $11.25; $10.50@$10.75; but later made

SHEEP

Receipts at Edmonton very light and prices unchanged, with lambs $8@$9; wethers, $7@$8; ewes, $4.50@$6.50.

GRAIN

Prices have been breaking badly all week, and though feeling is that bottom is about touched, the situation is not clear yet. Slump due to heavy receipts of Australian and Argentine wheat in Liverpool, and fact that recent purchases of our wheat has stocked the millers in the United Kingdom with supplies. Later prices are expected to improve, but May futures have been selling as low as $1.30.

PRODUCE

Eggs—Edmonton receiving fair local supplies, but imported stock still largely used to fill orders; Wednesday prices down to 27.50 on heavy receipts. Butter—Special, direct shipments now quoted 33c; creameries making arrangements to handle all business direct; receipts not increasing very fast. Creamery Butter—Cartons now quoted 40c; no carlots offered yet; local demand taking care of most of make. Dairy Butter—No demand and dealers not quoting; some storage cleaning up. Cheese —Local cheese supplying demand; price follows eastern movement, plus freight Poultry—Receipts of live poultry light; storage stocks moving fairly well.

HAY

Heavy business during past week and supplies getting well cleaned up; prices unchanged, dealers paying farmers at shipping points $12@$13 for upland, and $18@$19 for timothy; hard to make prompt shipments.

HIDES

No improvement in market, and not anything expected for couple of months.

FURS

Market steady, with moderate demand, which takes care of all receipts. Spring catch coming on soon.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends who so kindly helped us in our recent illness and bereavement, Mr and Mrs S. L. Groves and Family. Edgerton.

Don't neglect your fire insurance; it is important and needs careful attention. Place this business with the Atlas Lumber Co. See Joe Welch.

NEW PROVINCIAL HEALTH REPORT IS PUBLISHED

Health propaganda carried on by the Provincial Department of Health, through clinics, by the preaching of health by the public health nurses, and through all the general activities of the Health Department, supplemented by similar work of local health departments, has all had its distinct result in the encouraging decrease in the infant mortality rate in the Province.

Births in the Province during 1921 totalled 15,846 against 15,861 for 1921, a decrease of only 15. The total for 1920 was a record for the province by 1500.

Marriages totalled 4628 during the year, a decrease of 426 from 1920. The decrease was almost entirely in the cities. There were 88 divorces during the year.

The death rate has dropped. It is now only 8.6 per 1,000. The total deaths in 1921 were 4904, a decrease of 596 from 1920.

The splendid progress of municipal hospitals is told of in the hospital report. During the year five municipal hospital districts were organized, namely, Camrose Red Deer, Warner, Taber and Grande Prairie. The adverse vote at Red Deer against the sub-hospital plan, Mr Whiston thinks is an indication of the unpopularity of this particular phase of municipal hospitals and suggests the elimination of the provision for sub-hospitals. New hospital buildings have been erected, or are being erected, at Viking, High River, Hanna and Provost.

The number of maternity cases handled in the municipal hospitals was 645 in 1921, as against 444 in 1920.

Total grants to all hospitals in the Province during the year was $249,564.50.

NEW TAXES TO BE LEVIED BY PROVINCE

Edmonton—Alberta is to have a government tax on gasoline. This developed during the course of Premier Greenfield's budget speech Thursday afternoon, when he made a brief announcement to this effect. Latter he informed newspaper men that the tax imposed would be two cents a gallon, this being calculated to yield a revenue to the province of $264,000 this year.

In fact the cities and urban centres are to be particularly hit with the contemplated advanced taxation of the new government. In addition to the higher fees which corporations will be called upon to pay, there is the proposed levy of another five cents a ton on coal, and increased rates for amusement taxation as per the following schedule:

	New	Old
Tickets up to 15c . . .	1	1
Tickets 16c to 50c	5	2½
Tickets 51c to 75c	7½	5
Tikets 75c to $1.25	12½	10
Tickets $1.26 to $2.00 .	15	12½
Tickets over $2.00	15	25

In connection with the proposed tax on gasoline, Premier Greenfield, in an interview, declared the government would later take steps to investigate the reason why gasoline prices are so high in the province, as compared with other parts of the country.

CONCERT AT MAYFIELD BIG SUCCESS

The whist drive and concert held at Mayfield schoolhouse on Wednesday last was possibly the best put on this winter, and in spite of the stormy weather a large number of members and visitors were in attendance. A lot of unexpected talent took part in making the concert the success it proved, and it is plainly seen that the ladies were fully interested by the splendid supper they served. Four good prizes were given in the whist drive, and the club extends thanks to the many willing helpers

We are indeed glad to note that Mrs Ed. Davis who was confined to her bed last week with a severe attack of "la grippe" is now progressing favorably.

"What do you mean? What is it?"

"Yourself. My scheme gets Stanley G. Fulton back to life and Chicago very nicely; but it doesn't get Maggie Duff there worth a cent! Maggie Duff can't marry Mr. John Smith in Hillerton and arrive in Chicago as the wife of Stanley G. Fulton, can she?"

"N-no, but he—he can come back and get her—if he wants her." Miss Maggie blushed.

"If he wants her, indeed!" (Miss Maggie blushed all the more at the method and the fervor of Mr. Smith's answer to this.) "Come back as Mr. Stanley G. Fulton, you mean?" went on Mr. Smith, smiling at Miss Maggie's hurried efforts to smooth her ruffled hair. "Too risky, my dear! He'd look altogether too much like—like Mr. John Smith."

"But your beard will be gone—I wonder how I shall like you without a beard." She eyed him critically.

Mr. Smith laughed and threw up his hands with a doleful shrug.

"That's what comes of courting as one man and marrying as another," he groaned. Then, stoutly: "I'll warn you right now, Maggie Duff, that Stanley G. Fulton is going to be awfully jealous of John Smith if you don't look out."

"He should have though of that before," retorted Miss Maggie, her eyes mischievous. "But, see here, wouldn't you ever dare to come—in your proper person?"

"Never!—or, at least, not for some time. The beard would be gone, to be sure; but there'd be all the rest to tattle—eyes, voice, size, manner, walk—everything; and smoked glasses couldn't cover all that, you know. Besides, glasses would be taboo, anyway. They'd only result in making me look more like John Smith than ever. John Smith, you remember, wore smoked glasses for some time to hide Mr. Stanley G. Fulton from the ubiquitous reporter. No, Mr. Stanley G. Fulton can't come to Hillerton. So, as Mahomet can't go to the mountain, the mountain must come to Mahomet."

"Meaning—!" Miss Maggie's eyes were growing dangerously mutinous.

"That you will have to come to Chicago—yes."

"And court you? No, sir—thank you!"

Mr. Smith chuckled softly.

"I love you with your head titled that way." (Miss Maggie promptly tilted it the other.) "Or that, either, for that matter," continued Mr. Smith genially. "However, speaking of courting—Mr. Fulton will do that, all right, and endeavor to leave nothing lacking, either as to quantity or quality. Think, now. Don't you know anyone in Chicago? Haven't you got some friend that you can visit?"

"No!" Miss Maggie's answer was prompt and emphatic—too prompt and too emphatic for unquestioning acceptance.

"Oh, yes, you have," asserted the man cheerfully. "I don't know her name—but she's there. She's waving a red flag from your face this minute! Now, listen. Well, turn your head away, if you like—if you can listen better that way," he went on tranquilly, paying no attention to her little gasp. "Well, all you have to do is to write the lady you're coming, and go. Never mind who she is —Mr. Stanley G. Fulton will find a way to meet her. Trust him for that! Then he'll call and meet you —and be so pleased to see you! The rest will be easy. There'll be a regular whirlwind courtship then—calls, balls, dinners, theaters, candy, books, flowers! Then Mr. Stanley G. Fulton will propose marriage. You'll be immensely surprised, of course, but you'll accept. Then we'll get married," he finished with a deep sigh of satisfaction.

"Mr. Smith!" ejaculated Miss Maggie faintly.

"Say, can't you call me anything—" he began wrathfully, but interrupted himself. "However, it's better that you don't, after all. Because I've got to be 'Mr. Smith' as long as I stay here. But you wait till you meet Mr. Stanley G. Fulton in Chicago! Now, what's her name, and where does she live?"

Miss Maggie laughed in spite of herself, as she said severely: "Her name, indeed! I'm afraid Mr. Stanley G. Fulton is so in the habit of having his own way that he forgets he is still Mr. John Smith. However, there is an old schoolmate," she acknowledged demurely.

"Of course there is! Now, write her at once, and tell her you're coming."

"But she—she may not be there."

"Then get her there. She's got to be there. And, listen. I think you'd better plan to go pretty soon after I go to South America. Then you can be there when Mr. Stanley G. Fulton arrives in Chicago and can write the news back here to Hillerton. Oh, they'll get it in the papers, in time, of course; but I think it had better come from you first. You see—the reappearance on this earth of Mr. Stanley G. Fulton is going to be of—of some moment to them, you know. There is Mrs. Hattie, for instance, who is counting on the rest of the money next November."

"Yes, I know, it will mean a good deal to them, of course. Still, I don't believe Hattie is really expecting the money. At any rate, she hasn't said anything about it very lately—perhaps because she's been too busy bemoaning the pass the present money has brought them to."

"Yes I know," frowned Mr. Smith, with a gloomy sigh. "That miserable money!"

"No, no—I didn't mean to bring that up," apologized Miss Maggie quickly, with an apprehensive glance into his face. "And it wasn't miserable money a bit! Besides, Hattie has—has learned her lesson, I'm sure, and she'll do altogether differently in the new home. But, Mr. Smith, am I never to—to come back here? Can't we come back—ever?"

"Indeed we can—some time, by and by, when all this has blown over, and they've forgotten how Mr. Smith looks. We can come back then. Meanwhile, you can come—alone—a very little. I shan't let you leave me very much. But I understand; you'll have to come to see your friends. Besides, there are all those arrangements for the babies and cleaner milk for the streets, and—"

"Cleaner milk for the streets, indeed!"

"Eh? What? Oh, yes, it was the milk for the babies, wasn't it?" he teased. "Well, however that may be, you'll have to come back to superintend all those things you've been wanting to do so long. But"—his face grew a little wistful—"you don't want to spend too much time here. You know—Chicago has a few babies that need cleaner milk."

"Yes, I know, I know!" Her face grew softly luminous as it had grown earlier in the afternoon.

"So you can bestow some of your charity there; and—"

"It isn't charity," she interrupted with suddenly flashing eyes. "Oh, how I hate that word—the way it's used, I mean. Of course, the real charity means love. Love, indeed! I suppose it was love that made John Daly give one hundred dollars to the Pension Fund Fair—after he'd jewed it out of those poor girls behind the counters! And Mrs. Morse went around everywhere telling how kind dear Mr. Daly was to give so much to charity! Charity! Nobody wants charity—except a few lazy rascals like those beggars of Flora's! But we all want our rights. And if half the world gave the other half its rights there wouldn't be any charity, I believe!"

"Dear dear! What have we here? A rabid little Socialist?" Mr. Smith held up both hands in mock terror. "I shall be petitioning her for my bread and butter, yet!"

"Nonsense! But, honestly, Mr. Smith, when I think of all that money"—her eyes began to shine again—"and of what we can do with it, I—I just can't believe it's so!"

"But you aren't expecting that twenty millions are going to right all the wrongs in the world, are you?" Mr. Smith's eyes were quizzical.

"No, oh, no; but we can help some that we know about. But it isn't that I just want to give, you know. We must get behind things—to the causes. We must—"

"We must make the Mr. Dalys pay more to their girls before they pay anything to pension funds, eh?" laughed Mr. Smith, as Miss Maggie came to a breathless pause.

"Exactly!" nodded Miss Maggie earnestly. "Oh, can't you see what we can do—with that twenty million dollars?"

Mr. Smith, his gaze on Miss Maggie's flushed cheeks and shining eyes, smiled tenderly. Then with mock severity he frowned.

"I see—that I'm being married for my money—after all!" he scolded.

"Pooh!" sniffed Miss Maggie, so altogether bewitchingly that Mr. Smith gave her a rapturous kiss.

CHAPTER XXV.

Exit Mr. John Smith

Early in July Mr. Smith took his departure from Hillerton. He made a farewell call upon each of the Blaisdell families, and thanked them heartily for all their kindness in assisting him with his Blaisdell book.

The Blaisdells, one and all, said they were very sorry to have him go. Miss Flora frankly wiped her eyes, and told Mr. Smith she could never, never thank him enough for what he had done for her. Mellicent, too, with shy eyes averted, told him she should never forget what he had done for her—and for Donald.

Headaches Gone

Perhaps you can imagine what this means to one who had suffered terribly with headaches for ten years.

Read about it in this latter.

Mrs. Tena A. Smith, Country Harbor Cross Roads, N. S., writes:

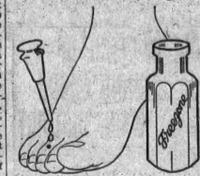

"I feel that if anyone can recommend Dr. Chase's medicines I certainly can. I suffered for ten years from severe headaches, and although I took all kinds of headache powders they just relieved me at the time. I became very nervous and run-down, and everything seemed to trouble me. I have taken eighteen boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and it has made an entirely new person of me. I felt that I could not have lived without it. I do not have one headache now for every hundred I used to have, and my nerves are good and strong. I just weighed 109 pounds when I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and now I weigh 121. Knowing what this treatment has done for me, I cannot too highly recommend it to others."

Easy Money in Russia

Humorous Story About Prisoner Who Printed Money to Pay His Fine

The Rul, a Russian newspaper, gives the following amusing story from Petrograd:

"Some time ago the Petrograd Extraordinary Commission arrested an individual with a trunk full of paper money. The agents of the Cheka could not make out his profession, but released him against payment of a fine of 1,000,000 roubles. Then after a week or so, they thought better of it and arrested the man again, demanding a fine of two millions. It was paid immediately. This astonished the authorities, and a few days later the unhappy millionaire found himself again in prison. A ransom of five millions was demanded. The victim asked for two days' delay, and on the third day brought the quantity of paper demanded.

Two weeks later he was again arrested and ordered to produce ten millions. He asked for two weeks to produce the sum. He was given only a week, after which he again appeared, bringing the bale of paper roubles. Two sturdy individuals carried in after him a heavy box. "Here are your ten millions," declared the extraordinary individual, 'but I have brought also the printing press. You can continue yourselves."

This ancedote is typical of the state of the Russian currency. Beggars in the street insult you if you offer them 100 roubles, and the tram conductors accumulate small fortunes collecting the money which passengers have let drop and do not think it worth while to pick up.

HEART WOULD BEAT LIKE A TRIP HAMMER

Heart trouble has of late years become very prevalent. Sometimes a pain catches you in the region of the heart, now and then your heart skips beats, palpitates, throbs, or beats with such rapidity and violence you think it is going to burst.

You have weak and dizzy spells, sinking sensations, are nervous, irritable and depressed, and if you attempt to walk upstairs or any distance you get all out of breath.

We know of no remedy that will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy normal condition as will

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes: —"I had palpitation of the heart, and the least exercise, such as going upstairs or up a hill, my heart would beat like a trip hammer and at times I was dizzy-headed and had a sinking sensation as if my time were near.

A friend suggested I try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, so I procured three boxes, and by the time the first one was used I began to improve. In all I took six boxes, and now although in my 66th year I feel like a young girl; no dizziness or heart-thumping, and can walk miles without fatigue. At time of sickness I weighed 120 lbs. now I weigh 150."

India Must Choose

Government Has to Protect Citizens Or Resign to Ghandi

The non-co-operators have placed one issue and one only before the country—it is the choice between the rule of law and the chaos of no-law. There has not been, there could not be, any hesitation in the action of the Government. They must either pursue the policy they have marked out for the protection of the citizen and maintenance of law or resign the government of the country to Mr. Ghandi and Mr. Das; there is no other alternative whatsoever. There is a choice before the people of India and that is between the ordered evolution of the Indian constitution and revolution. That the clear-cut and irrevocable nature of this choice is completely understood is unfortunately not the case.—Times of India.

Hudson's Bay Fur Trader Takes First Trip to Civilization in Six Years

Owen Griffith, a fur trader at the Albany post of the Hudson's Bay Company, on James Bay, is a visitor in Winnipeg, on his first trip to "civilization" in six years.

It took Mr. Griffith seventeen days to travel by dog sleigh from Albany to Pagwi, between Hearst and Armstrong, Ont. He had a team of 12 dogs, and was accompanied by two Indians. They were heavily laden, and the trail had to be broken for almost the whole way. The best his team could do was 27 miles in a fairly long day. The whole journey was made on the frozen snow-covered rivers.

Mr. Griffiths brought out the news that Joseph Lescandron, an agent for Revillon's, had lost his life late last fall, in a creek that flows into the Albany River, when his canoe capsized while he was trying to land a wounded seal. His wife and child witnessed the tragedy, unable to render aid.

Mr. Griffith is on three months' leave of absence, and after a trip to the Old Country, will return to his post in the spring, by canoe.

Pasteurization of Milk

How the Process Can be Performed At Home

Milk can be pasteurized at home. That is one of the facts to be gleaned from a thirty-two page pamphlet, "Why and How to Use Milk," issued by the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch at Ottawa and prepared by Miss Helen G. Campbell, an officer of the branch. The process to be followed is as follows: If the milk is bought in bottles, pour out a little and replace the caps. Make a hole in the paper cap of one bottle and insert a small glass dairy thermometer. Set the bottles on a clean folded towel in a tin pail and around this pour warm water until it reaches nearly as high as the top of the bottles. Don't set the bottles directly on the bottom of the pail or pour in very hot water, if you would avoid the danger of breaking. Place the pail over the fire and heat until the thermometer in the bottle registers 145 degrees F. Remove from the fire and let the bottles stand in the water for thirty minutes, re-heating, if necessary to keep the temperature at 145 degrees F. After thirty minutes pour in cold water to replace the hot water around the bottles and cool the milk as quickly as possible to 50 degrees F. Keep as cold as possible until used, which should be before the lapse of twenty-four hours. If no thermometer is at hand the milk can be pasteurized in the same way by heating the water when around the bottles until a little below boiling point. Then follow the same process as given before. Where the milk is not bottled it can be pasteurized in glass jars, which should first be thoroughly washed and sterilized. The bulletin from which this is taken and which can be had free from the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, tells all about the value of milk as a food in its various forms and gives fifty recipes in which it is a necessary and the main ingredient.

An Old Hospital

St. Bartholomew's, London, Arranging for Celebration of of 800th Anniversary

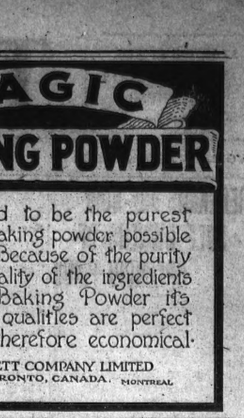

Three hundred and fifty years before Columbus discovered America, St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, had been established, said Lord Stanmore, at a meeting held to arrange for the celebration of the 800th anniversary of the hospital. A man who fought in the Battle of Hastings, added his lordship, might himself have been in later life a patient of the institution. It was proposed that the celebrations should take place in the spring of 1923, and that there should be an historical exhibition, religious services and a pageant.

When Art Becomes Too Artistic

A declaration by Lady Astor that domestic service is a skilled job confirms a general impression of long standing. An honorable and necessary calling is entitled to all respect and consideration. Embarassment, however, must arise for all concerned when accomplishments pertaining to household administration become so highly refined that their possessors permit themselves the eccentricities of the artistic temperament.—From the Washington Star.

Object to High Buildings in London

The proposal of the committee on London building acts to alter the regulations to permit the erection of buildings 120 feet high, instead of the present maximum of 80 feet, is disapproved of by the Royal Institute of British Architects. A vote on the question resulted in 79 to 8 against the scheme.

Poor Man's Palace

The Home Has Greater Value than Can be Expressed in Monetary Terms

A city of homes is pleasing to the eyes and a joy to the mind. When neighbor meets neighbor in fellowship and friendship, when all personal interest unconsciously becomes public again, there is nothing on this earth, that pays greater dividends than the keen friendly rivalry of different families working to out-do each other in beautifying their home and surroundings. The home never fails to respond in proportion to the thrift and industry exerted in its maintenance.

The home and its association are so inseparable that the building, which we call home, is sacred, in our affection. The home is the unit of society, and the foundation of Christianity and civilization. It is the poor man's palace where love reigns supreme as well as the rich man's shrine. A home represents value, interests and influences in the community. It has far greater value than it is possible to express in monetary terms.

Mother Seigel's Syrup is now sold in 50c. and $1.00 bottles at drug stores.

Poultry Dealers to Organize

Preliminary Meeting for this Purpose to be Held in Toronto

The producers of eggs and poultry in Ontario and other parts of Canada have felt for some time the necessity of getting together and rising to their opportunities, and the call has gone out for the preliminary meeting in Toronto that will organize the commercial poultrymen of the Dominion. The poultry fanciers are well organized, but for the most part the poultry associations are more concerned in the growing of fine feathers and conducting poultry shows than in developing the economic side of the industry.

The object of the proposed association is to stimulate the poultry interests of Canada by calling attention, through advertising and in other ways, to the nutritious value of the hen's eggs and meat and the influence of these on the general health of the people. It will also regulate the marketing and standardizing of eggs.

Climate and Deafness

It is curious to note how deaf-mutism varies in different countries. In Switzerland, for instance, owing to the prevalence of cretinism, 245 per 100,000 of the inhabitants suffer from it, whereas the general average among European countries is 79, and in the United States, 68 per 100,000.

Statue of General Maude

An equestrian statue of Lieut.-General Sir Stanley Maude, who died while he was commander-in-chief in Mesopotamia, has been completed, and will be taken from England to Bagdad, where it is to be erected.

The mileage of the blood through the body amounts to the astonishing distance of 61,320 miles in a year.

Larger Army Needed in India

British Troops and Indian Cavalry Have Been Reduced

Gen. Lord Henry S. Rawlinson, commander-in-chief of the British troops in India, explained the military situation to English and Indian journalists at Delhi, and gave his reasons for the necessity of having armies of greater strength both for the frontier and internal defence. Gen. Rawlinson declared that the tribesmen, if they combined, could raise some 130,000 splendid fighters. He said the British troops had been decreased and the Indian cavalry reduced from 40 to 21 regiments.

THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant.

Tanlac Soon Ended His Stomach Trouble Declares M. Poniaud

"If I ever felt any better in my life than I do now I don't know when it was and it is all due to Tanlac," said M. Poniaud, 381 King St., Winnipeg, Man.

"By taking Tanlac I got rid of a case of stomach trouble and disordered kidneys that bothered me for three years and a half and I am feeling just like a new man now.

"It used to be that I actually dreaded to eat on account of the distress that I knew would certainly follow. Nobody knows how I suffered during these years. Everything is changed now, however, and I am able to eat, sleep and work better than in years."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Autos in Canada

During 1921 the number of automobiles in Canada increased by 64,565 and the total now stands at 467,496. In Ontario alone, the increase amounted to 34,000, and Quebec's increase was more than 15,000. Saskatchewan leads the Dominion with one car to every fourteen of its population.

GENERAL DEBILITY FOLLOWS INFLUENZA

The After Effects Often More Serious Than the Disease Itself

No reasonable precaution to avert an attack of influenza should be spared. The disease itself often proves fatal and its after effects among those who are spared, make the life of the victim one of almost constant misery. Ask almost any of those who have been attacked by this trouble what their present condition of health is and most of them will answer: "Since I had the influenza I have never been fully well." This trouble leaves behind it a persistent weakness of the limbs, shortness of breath, bad digestion, palpitation of the heart and a tired feeling after even slight exertion. This is due to the thin-blooded condition in which the patient is left after the fever and influenza have subsided. This condition will continue until the blood is built up again, and for building up the blood and strengthening the nerves nothing can equal a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The value of this medicine in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mr. Edward J. McGuire, Pembroke, Ont., who says:—"In the fall of 1918 I was attacked with the influenza—and not in a mild form either. I was confined to my room for three weeks, and although the influenza subsided I did not regain my health. As a matter of fact I seemed to be growing weaker, was subject to fainting spells and my feet and ankles were badly swollen. The doctor told me that my condition had developed into a serious case of anaemia, and although I was under his care for over two months I was not improving in any way. At this stage one of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was loth to do so, as I began to think my case hopeless. However, I was finally persuaded to try them, and by the time I had used two boxes there was no doubt they were helping me. I continued taking the pills until I had used a dozen boxes, when I found that every symptom of the trouble had left me and I was again enjoying the best of health. I returned to my work and have ever since been in good health and feel that I owe it entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I think that anyone who is suffering from the after effects of influenza, or any form of anaemia should give this medicine a fair trial."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bid for Millions Lying in Ocean

Many Are Interested in Searching for War Treasures

Another bid for the millions lying on the bed of the ocean is indicated by a newspaper advertisement.

A salvage engineer states that he has secured exclusive information of the location in international waters of a torpedoed vessel containing £2,000,000 of bullion, which could be salved in three weeks.

Speculative as such an undertaking appears, the fact remains that in four years the now defunct Admiralty Salvage Department raised 440 important vessels and recovered property to the value of £50,000,000.

There are over 2,000 British merchant vessels, sunk by the enemy whose positions have been charted. Nearly 2,000,000 of tonnage is within workable depth.

A naval expert declares that the Admiralty have charted all sunken ships and know exactly what each contains.

Minard's Liniment for the Grippe and Flu

Second In The British Empire

Good Work Inaugurated by the Canadian Blind Babies' Home Association

About eighteen months ago I addressed an "Open Letter to the Generously Disposed," making an appeal in behalf of blind babies, and conveying to readers an intimation that the enterprise commenced sometime before by the late Mr. T. Hope Churchill, for which he had made sundry collections, would be carried on, and that a charter, without stock subscription, would be obtained. This has been done, and the Canadian Blind Babies' Home Association has been incorporated, with the following:

Directors—Hon. Martin Burrell, Hon. President; Hon. J. G. Turriff, President; A. H. Fitzsimmons, Vice-President; Edward Grand, Secretary; C. Blackett Robinson, Cor. Secretary; J. F. McKinley, Treasurer; Lt.-Col. Whitton, M.D., R. H. Campbell, Thomas Mulvey, K.C., A. E. Provost, W. Lyle Reid, A. J. Freiman, Charles H. Pinhey, C.E., W. J. Cairns and Tom Moore.

Trustees—C. H. Pinhey, C.E., Thomas Mulvey, K.C., A. J. Freiman. Legal Adviser—John L. MacCracken, K.C. Bankers—Royal Bank of Canada. Auditor—A. A. Crawley, C.A.

The objects of this institution are—"To provide a home and refuge for Baby and Infant Blind; to provide Free Scientific Care, Training and Maintenance; to save the lives of even a few of the many of such unfortunates, who, for the lack of such service, perish every year; and to return these little ones to their parents, at school age with normal, healthy bodies and sound minds."

This is a large and greatly needed Child Welfare Service. Careful enquiry at the Government Offices in the various Provinces reveals the fact that there are at the present time nearly 250 infant Blind in the Dominion. Nothing has yet been done for those helpless little ones. In the United States, 18 years ago, the first home was opened in New York City; they have now homes in 13 States, all doing excellent work. In England, some time ago, the late Sir Arthur Pearson organized "Sunshine House," Chorley Wood, for Blind Babies, and he claimed that it was the only one in the British Empire. Let us have the second in Canada. To reach this worthy end money is urgently required. Fifty thousand dollars is the present objective of the Board. While the first home is to be located in Ottawa it will take in the Baby Blind from every Province, so that this appeal for funds will be Dominion-wide, and an early and generous response is confidently expected. Cheques should be made payable to the Canadian Blind Babies Home Association. All remittances will be promptly acknowledged.

If you happen to know of a Blind Child under six years of age, be good enough to furnish us with address of parents, so that we may get in touch with such cases.

Contributions from Oddfellows

The Oddfellows throughout the Dominion are contributing generously to the fund. The following Lodges have already responded, and money is still coming in—

Manitoba Dairy Production

Value of all Dairy Products for the Year 1921 is Announced

The value of dairy production in Manitoba during 1921 was $12,589,831. Production of creamery butter amounted to 8,550,105 pounds; dairy butter, 9,888,103; cheese, 269,524. During the year 108 carloads of creamery butter was shipped out of the province. This represents 2,316,372 pounds, valued at $856,020. The bulk of this butter was shipped to Montreal, Toronto and the British markets, a few cars going to New York and Chicago.

A Power of its Own.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has a subtle power of its own. All who have used it know this and keep it by them as the most valuable liniment available. Its uses are innumerable and for many years it has been prized as the leading liniment for man and beast.

The Smallest Watch

James Usher, of High Street, Lincoln, jeweler, who left £58,735, gave his valuable collection of art treasures, including what is reputed to be the small repeating watch in the world, being only one-third of an inch in diameter, to the Corporation of Lincoln. After a number of bequests he left the residue of his property to the corporation for providing a building to hold the collection.

Internally and Externally it is Good.—The crowning property of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is that it can be used internally for many complaints as well as externally. For sore throat, croup, whooping cough, pains in the chest, colic and many kindred ailments it has qualities that are unsurpassed. A bottle of it costs little and there is no loss in always having it at hand.

Earth's Littliest Monarch

The tiniest ruler in the world is probably Datu Paglima Diki Diki, aged 37, weighing 23 pounds, standing 32 inches high, who is the absolute chief of the Island of Ubian, in the Southern Philippines.

Mother! Move Child's Bowels With California Fig Syrup

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Looking from one lofty mountain range across to another, enormous distances may be spanned. The record is said to be between Mount Sparta, in Mexico, and the Sierra Madre, the two ranges being about 200 miles apart.

Asthma Victims. The man or woman subject to asthma is indeed a victim. What can be more terrifying than to suddenly be seized with paroxysms of choking which seem to fairly threaten the existence of life itself. From such a condition Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has brought many to completely restored health and happiness. It is known and prized in every section of this broad land.

NOW DO MY WORK WITH EASE

Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored My Health

Hornell, N. Y.—"I was in bad health but there didn't seem to be any one thing I could name the matter with me. I was tired out all over and it was an effort for me to move. I was irritable and could not sleep nights and had trouble with my bowels and at my periods. It seemed that nearly every one around me knew of your medicine and wanted me to try it, so at last I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and improved every day. I do all my own work now except the washing and do it with ease. I can accomplish as much in a day now as it would have taken me a week to do last winter and I try to get every one I know to take your medicine to build them up. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial if you like."—Mrs. Chas. Baker, 21 Spencer Ave., Hornell, N.Y.

In almost every neighborhood there are women who know of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They know because they have taken it and have been helped. Why don't you give it a trial?

Highway Fatalities

During the eighteen months that United States troops were engaged in the war overseas, 48,000 soldiers lost their lives on the battlefield. In exactly the same period, according to the New York Herald, 91,000 persons, of whom 25,000 were children, were killed by automobiles on United States highways.

Dye Old Wrap, Skirt, Sweater, Curtains In Diamond Dyes

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her old, worn, faded things new. Even if she has never dyed before, she can put a rich, fadeless color into shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything. Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run.

Farmers to Gain $20,000,000

Advance in Price of Wheat Has Good Effect on Business

Western Canadian farmers, on the basis of recent advances in wheat prices, stand to realize about $20,000,000 more out of the 1921 crop than appeared possible at the time the slump in prices had reached the lowest level in December. Wheat prices now are approximately 25 cents a bushel higher than the low level figure of the closing month of 1921. There are about 70,000,000 bushels of wheat still in the hands of farmers to be sold, it is estimated. The advance in price, which is world-wide, will benefit farmers who have not disposed of their crops. The additional wealth available, if the price is maintained or if it advances still more, will have a splendid effect on conditions throughout Western Canada.

Ready to Aid Russia

Britain, France and Germany Have Already Made Proposals

Carl Radek and Leonid Krassin, representatives of the Russian Soviet, have gone to Moscow with proposals from France, Great Britain and Germany, looking toward Russian economic reconstruction.

Germany, on account of her lack of gold, is unable to make Russia as favorable offers as Britain and France, but M. Radek and his associates are inclined to believe that the German offers are better calculated to reconstruct Russia, which especially needs German locomotives and other German manufactures.

Airplane Patrol

Manitoba to Use Airplanes for Fire Patrols and Other Work

Manitoba will have a fleet of five airplanes next summer, two or three of which will be able to carry at least 10 passengers, to patrol the forest areas and perform various other duties for the Dominion Government officers in the province. Several machines are being erected and overhauled, while two large F-3 seaplanes are expected early in the spring from British Columbia. Duties of the airfleet, besides patroling forest regions to detect fires, will include the conveying of officials who will pay treaty money to the Indians in the northlands, and the rendering of assistance in the government reclamation survey of the Carrot River district.

Summer Pyjamas Of Pink Pongette

By Marie Belmont

Very convenient for summer wear are these pyjamas, developed in pink pongette bound in white batiste. The coat is slipped on over the head and tied below the waistline with the self material pink, finished in regular four-in-hand fashion.

The pyjamas are easily made and easily laundered, and can be made more practical still by developing them in some material which eliminates the necessity of laundering.

For those who prefer nightgowns, the same scallop treatment may be carried out at V-neck, sleeves and around the bottom.

Received Food by Airplane

Marooned from the rest of the world, with no means of replenishing their food supply, a father, mother and two children living on a homestead twelve miles north of Reno, Nevada, were saved from possible starvation by the air mail service, which sent a food laden airplane to the district. While the plane circled over the house three large sacks of food were dropped into the yard.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Hard and Red. Festered and Itched Badly. Cuticura Heals.

"My trouble began with a roughening of the skin and itching scalp. Later hard, red pimples broke out on my face and completely covered it. Some of the pimples festered and itched badly at times. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after a few days my face felt better. I continued using them and in three weeks was completely healed, after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." ENOUGH MEN IN ALBERTA FOR THE SPRING WORK HERE

J. W. Mitchell, director of the Alberta government employment service says that the question of farm labor for spring work in the three prairie provinces was discussed at the convention. The delegates from Alberta and Manitoba were of the opinion that it would not be necessary to bring any men into either of these provinces. It was the consensus of opinion that the unemployed in these two provinces would prove sufficient to handle all demands for farm hands during this spring.

This was the third annual conference of the western superintendents and the following were present: Bryce Stewart, director of labor, Ottawa; J. W. Mitchell, director of the Alberta government employment service; T. M. Molloy, Saskatchewan commissioner of labor, and W. Brewis, inspector of Saskatchewan employment offices, J. A. Bowman, Manitoba general superintendent, and the superintendents from the various offices in British Columbia.

The discussion at the conference was chiefly on organization and the internal working of the service.

JOBS FOR THE JOBLESS

The unemployment problem is striking much closer to the pocket of every retailer—no matter what his business—than it seems at the first glance. The retail dealer depends upon the public for his livelihood. The more people there are out of work the more their buying power is curtailed, and because of this every retailer can interest himself in any plan that will provide jobs for the jobless—thereby not only helping some unfortunate, but incidentally putting that person in a position where he may be able to buy the necessities of life. Here is a suggestion: The winter time in the west is so severe that it puts an end to many activities which are carried on vigorously at other seasons. Thus many people are thrown out of work at the worst time of the year. Now, why not advance a Paint-up—Clean-up campaign to some extent at least? Of course this does not suggest that outdoor painting be done, but every retailer either in his home or business, or both places, is certainly counting on doing some paint ing or decorating or cleaning up accumulated rubbish in the spring. Re-modeling and extensions of existing buildings are also planned here and there. Why not get as much of it done now and give some jobless fellow a chance to earn a few dollars to help him along through the remainder of the winter? Our trouble is that we all get busy on the same thing at the same time, so there is never an equal distribution of opportunity for wage earners. Work that can be done now just as well as two or three months hence might be started to the benefit of everyone concerned. Can't you find a few days' work repairing or remodelling your store or squaring up odds and ends of stock? Instead of waiting for Provincial Clean-up—Paint-up weeks in May, do what you can now and so relieve the situation a little. It may mean a slight inconvenience, but with people out of work, surely the opportunity of extending a little practical assistance in this way would more than offset any other consideration.

POOR BUSINESS

No matter how one cares to view it, the strike or lockout which puts men and women away from their regular employment and temporarily stops useful production, is poor business, with no redeeming features that overbalance its undesirable tendencies.

Last year, according to Kelly's Monthly Trade Register, not less than 86,000,000 days were lost by workers because of trade disputes That is a stupendous total of lost days, but when one considers it in the light of dollars and cents it is appalling to contemplate. Assuming that each day was worth no more than three dollars to the workers we have a total of $258,000,000. Experience of the past would indicate that benefits secured either by employed or employers in settlement of these disputes would counterbalance this enormous financial loss.

While arbitration and compromise may fail at times to give all that one feels is justifiable, it is a fact that in the main an arbitration or conciliation policy more generally approaches that ideal without close approach to which truly amicable relations cannot be expected between capital and labor. The first thing a strike or lockout shows to unbiased mind is that on one side or the other, or on both sides in all probability, uncompromising influences are at work Such influences are a curse to the well-being of the state or community. They spring from the womb of selfishness which is the arch enemy of advancement in community interest.

Only the policy of give and take saved the day for civilization in the international settlements following the great war. That policy and that policy alone could and would have prevented the 1921 loss of $258,000,000 to the workers of the world. That it did not do this is a sad commentary on the quality of our boasted civilization. So long as such conditions are possible among us we should not boast but benmoan that our civilization is so spurious a thing.

WHY ROB THE UNFORTUNATE?

The Tax Recovery Act is being eased off by the Legislaure to the extent that a deliquent will e given two years in which to redeem property sized by the municipality for taxes. It is provided, however that where property is sold the price shall be the fair value of the land and that the municipality shall keep all the proceeds. That is not fair, and it is not sound public policy. It is another application of the prevalent but suicidal notion that the way to create good conditions is to fleece without mercy and regardless of justice the unfortunate individual for the supposed benefit of the public. When a taxpayer's property is taken from him he suffers enough in any event in pocket and spirit. The least that can be done in decency is to give him any balance of the selling price there is left after the municipality has recovered the taxes due with the costs to which it has been put. The community does not prosper by pauperising people who happen to have a crop failure or to be out of work for a season. Nor is there any defensible pretence of fairness in doing so.—Bulletin.

KEEPING UP THE MILK SUPPLY

(Experimental Farm Notes)

June conditions in the feed and management of cattle are conducive to the maximum milk yield. These conditions are, plenty of succulent palatable food, plenty of light, fresh air and clean water and comfortable quarters. These are supplied in summer by good pasture, preferably a legume, clean water, shade from sun and rain and protection from flies. The location of the pasture is of considerable import ance for if the cows are required to travel far it counts against the yield of milk.

As the summer advances and the pastures become dry and the flies become more troublesome the milk flow falls off unless these conditions are counteracted Freshly cut green oats fed at this time answer well for the depleted pasture and regular applications of any of the various fly oils counteract the effect of the increasing fly pests.

The milk yield cannot be kept up during the fall and winter without succulent feed and this is best supplied by roots such as turnips and mangels or by ensilage. At the Rosthern Experimental Station no success has attended any effort to grow mangels but turnips have always yielded heavy crops. Turnips, however, are expensive due to the amount of hand work in growing and to the difficulty in storing and feeding. A much less expensive and more satisfactory winter feed for dairy cattle is sunflower ensilage. The sunflowers can be grown without much hand work and can be harvested with machinery and out immediately into the silo. Thirty to forty pounds as a daily feed to dairy cows has practically the same effect on milk production as good grass pasture.

But grass alone is not sufficient for maximum returns. Whether on grass or ensilage a meal ration is necessary and a very handy and safe rule is to give 1lb of meal for 3½ lbs. milk produced. A satisfactory meal may be made up of 3 parts bran, 3 oat chop, 1½ barley chop 2 oil cake meal. When not on grass cattle do better if fed ten to fifteen pounds of hay or cut oat sheaves along with their roots or ensilage.

Along with feed must go proper care. A good dairy cow is possessed of high nervous development and knowing this one can readily understand why undue excitement tells adversely on the milk and milking.

Being a highly developed animal the dairy cow is subject to many diseases and hence the importance of clean quarters, fresh air and pure water.

To keep up the milk yield, therefore, we must provide:—

1. Abundant succulent feed.
2. Meal ration proportionate to the milk yield.
3. Plenty of fresh air and light.

PRAIRIE FARMERS PLANTING TREES

At many of the gatherings of farmers in the prairie Provinces during the winter of 1921-22, the subject of soil-drifting was discussed and the remedy most often proposed was that of planting wind-breaks of trees across the path of the prevailing wind. About sixty million little trees have been sent out from the Dominion Forest Nursery Station at Indian Head since it was established in 1901, and in spite of inevitable losses due to mistakes, accidents, and bad seasons a very large percentage are growing vigorously. Shipments for the season of 1922 will, it is expected, total five million and may run somewhat higher. In addition to prevent soil-drifting, belts of trees shelter the farmhouse and farm buildings and permit the establishment of gardens, where tree and bush fruits and tender vegetables can be grown.

The Evolution Of An Empire

The structure of the British Empire and the conception of empire entertained by the British people, both at home and abroad, has long been a puzzle to other nations and peoples. With the exception of the British themselves, people have been unable, as a rule, to harmonize the idea of several nations, each enjoying autonomous government and to all intents and purposes quite independent, constituting a compact and united Empire.

Possibly nowhere in the world was there a more mistaken conception of the unity and strength of the British Empire entertained than in Germany prior to 1914. Intelligent and presumably well informed German writers confidently predicted that the first serious war in which Great Britain was involved would be a signal for Canada, Australia and South Africa to throw off what they termed "the British yoke." Equally confident were the predictions that India would blaze into revolt, that Irishmen would rebel almost to a man, and that Egypt would quickly drive the British there into the sea. The loosely constituted British Empire would, they declared, quickly fall to pieces.

But the Great War had not really begun before it became manifest to the world that the British Empire was one and indivisible, many times stronger and more united than any of the empires of old held together by force and great armies. Instead of repudiating their allegiance to the British crown, Canada and Australia poured out their wealth and their manhood voluntarily and enthusiastically in support of their common Empire. The few discontented ones in South Africa were quickly quelled, and South Africa proceeded to render equally valuable aid to the Empire. India provided hundreds of thousands of soldiers and untold wealth, and brought about the downfall of Turkey in Mesopotamia and Palestine. The Irish, as usual, contributed many of the most valiant soldiers in the British armies.

With the ending of the war, the peaceful evolution of the British Empire proceeds apace. By the free act of the British Government and Parliament, Ireland is constituted a Free State within the Empire; the protectorate over Egypt is brought to an end and the ancient land of the Pharoahs granted autonomous government; step by step the rights and powers of self-government are being freely given to India just as rapidly as the people are capable of exercising those rights and powers.

Some unthinking people who fail to understand the genius of British administration profess to see in these things a gradual weakening of the Empire. They are sadly mistaken. These developments are signs of the strength of the Empire, not of any inherent weakness, and as time passes each of these units in the great British commonwealth of nations will give added strength and power to what is today the most powerful international force in existence, and the greatest stabilizing force in the world today.

Many nations have yet to learn that the extension of the liberties of the subject make for increased loyalty and, therefore, national strength, while policies of repression and coercion but add fuel to the flames of discontent, and, if persisted in, must inevitably end in disaster.

The British way is the human way, the commonsense way, the Christian way. One unit in this great British family of nations may find it necessary, in working out its own development and advancing its own welfare, to adopt, say a tariff against the products of one of its sister nations, and the world at once interprets this as a weakening in the links that bind the Empire together. But not so. If the adoption of such a policy is found essential to the upbuilding of a particular part of the Empire, and adds to the strength of that part, then the whole Empire is made stronger. But should the right to take such action be denied to any part, not only would that part be crippled in its development but irritation would arise which would prove a weakness and menace to the whole.

Kipling voiced a great truth when he wrote

"Daughter am I in my mother's house
But mistress in my own."

This is the relationship which exists throughout the civilized world in the family circle. It exists just as truly in the family of nations. The British have recognized the fact, and are acting upon it, with the result that the Empire is steadily growing in strength and true greatness and in unity of spirit and purpose.

It seems to have been given to the British people to step into the new and unpeopled portions of the earth, and into some of the older but less enlightened countries, and establish order and good government, provide modern means of communication and education, and then, when the people have advanced far enough, to entrust them with the direction of their own affairs. And every step taken in the carrying out of this great British policy may well be welcomed. Each such step is an evidence, not of British decay, but of British greatness and strength.

Centenary of Photography

Process Discovered by Frenchman Named Niepce in 1822

One hundred years ago—in 1822—the first permanent photographs were secured on a compound of sensitive bitumen of Judea by a Frenchman named Niepce. As early as 1802 a process by which records could be made by the action of light was discovered by a certain Tom Wedgewood, but no method of fixing the print was then known, and it was not until Niepce came along with his process that this was made possible. In 1829 Niepce entered into a partnership with Daguerre, another Frenchman, whose name is remembered in Daguerrotypes, the earliest photographic records that remain at the present day. A monument was erected in France (near Chalon) upon which an inscription definitely names the year of 1822 as that in which Niepce "discovered photography."

Helium Gas for Airships

Is Found in Large Quantities in Province of Alberta

The recent destruction of the United States airship "Roma," serves to direct attention to the use of helium gas for lighter-than-air craft. Helium gas, being incombustible, removes the danger of fire and explosion which occasionally levy such heavy toll. It is found in large quantities in the natural gas of Alberta and is another of the province's resources which will doubtless be developed as science and capital are brought to bear upon it.

Farmers Save Millions

Save Fifty to Sixty Millions Annually Through Experimental Farm Work

Starting with four farms and five divisions of work in 1886, the Dominion Experimental Farms system has expanded till at the present time there are throughout Canada, 22 Experimental Farms, 7 Sub-Stations, 2 Tobacco Stations and over 100 Illustration Farms. As the result of experimental work carried out under the Federal Department of Agriculture, the farmers of Canada save from fifty to sixty millions annually.

WINTER WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Our Canadian winters are exceedingly hard on the health of little ones. The weather is often so severe that the mother cannot take the little ones out for an airing. The consequence is that baby is confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms; takes cold and becomes cross and peevish. Baby's Own Tablets should be given to keep the little ones healthy. They are a mild laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels and thus prevent colds. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Origin of "Pot Luck"

In Old Days Guest Took Chances on Meal

Everyone is familiar with the expression "pot luck" which means that no special preparation is made for the invited guest. There was a time, however, when "pot luck" meant dishing the food out of a pot, and when the guest really took chances of getting a good meal or a very slim one. In the old days—and the practice is still in force in some parts of Europe—nothing came amiss to the family cooking pot, suspended from the pothook in the middle of the fireplace. Everything edible was thrown in it, and "to keep the pot boiling" the fire was seldom or ever allowed to go out. When the meal time came everyone fished in the pot for himself, and whatever he happened to find was "pot luck."

His Rheumatism and Backache both Gone

MR. JOHN NORDIN RECOMMENDS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Saskatchewan Man Tells of Relief From Suffering and Gladly Advises Others to try Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Percival, Sask.—(Special)—"I am more than glad to say a good word for Dodd's Kidney Pills."

These are the words of Mr. John Nordin, a well-known resident here. And Mr. Nordin is always ready to give the reason why.

"For about ten years I suffered dreadfully from backache and rheumatism," he says. "Then I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Now my backache and rheumatism are gone.

"I always keep Dodd's Kidney Pills on hand in case of need and to everybody with kidney trouble and backache I say 'try Dodd's Kidney Pills.'"

Dodd's Kidney Pills put the kidneys in shape to strain all the uric acid out of the blood. With no uric acid in the blood there can be no rheumatism.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the greatest of all Kidney remedies.

Copying Manitoba's System

System of Accounting in Vogue in Manitoba is Becoming Popular

Accountants and auditors have been commissioned to investigate the Manitoba system of accounting, with a view to its adoption in Alberta. The intention is to centralize and co-ordinate the work of the treasury in a department presided over by a comptroller-general. Hon. Edward Brown, provincial treasurer, stated that the Manitoba Government was the first in Canada to adopt the revenue system of carrying on the accounting of the province, following the old cash system which was in vogue when the Roblin Government was in power. British Columbia and New Brunswick have adopted the Manitoba system, and it was believed it would be brought into effect shortly in Alberta. —Free Press.

It has been authoritatively stated that the expectation of life for men and women who have passed 40 has actually decreased and is steadily decreasing.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR MARCH 19

THE DOWNFALL OF ISRAEL

This was the fulfillment of that which Amos had predicted in the days of Jeroboam II. at a time when the nation was at the height of its prosperity. The northern kingdom was ruled by 19 kings, all of whim were wicked. Their wickedness was not because of lack of information or opportunity, but in spite of it. God promised the first king His blessing if he would be loyal to Him. Jeroboam departed from God until the apostasy thus begun continued downward to the end. In the reign of Hoshea, the last king, the king of Assyria came and besieged Samaria and carried the children of Israel captive to Assyria, from which they never returned.

II. The Sins Which Caused Their Doom (vv. 7-18).

1. Conformed to the ways of the heathen (vv. 7-9). God had commanded them not to follow in the ways of the heathen, but these Israelites, instead of maintaining lives of separation, secretly did that which was displeasing to God. Secret sins just as surely as open sins bring ruin, for all things are naked and open to Him with whom we have to do. One may maintain his reputation before men while practicing sins, but ruin will sooner or later overtake him. Even though God had cast out the heathen for practicing these sins, the Israelites followed in their ways, God demands separation (II. Cor. 6:17).

2. Served idols (vv. 10-12). They not only compromised by "walking in the statutes of the heathen," but worshiped their gods. It was not a long step from following in the statutes of the heathen to worshiping their gods. Before they worshiped idols they cast off the true God. Idolatry came in because the race did not wish to retain God in its affection (Rom. 1:21-23). People today are worshiping idols because they have first cast off the authority of the living God. Man is a worshipful being. When he ceased to worship the true God, he worships other gods. Neutral ground is impossible.

3. They were rebellious (vv. 13-15). God by his prophet had said unto them, "Turn ye from your evil ways and keep my commandments," but they stubbornly refused His testimony, even rejected His statutes. God, in love, tried to save them. He sent some of the noblest and best prophets who ever spoke to man to persuade them to turn from their sins, such as Elijah and Elisha, but they hardened their necks and plunged deeper into wickedness.

4. Caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire (v. 17). This was the dreadful Moloch worship—the most cruel rite of heathen worship. It was done by kindling a fire in a hollow metal image until its arms were red hot and placing five children therein to be burned to death.

5. Resorted to magical practices (v. 17). When faith in the true God wanes, men always turn to the magical arts. In this way they sold themselves to evil in the sight of the Lord to provoke Him to anger.

III. Judgment Falls (v. 18).

At this stage of the drama the curtain falls. God could not be inactive longer.

1. God was very angry. God's anger is not raving fury, but the revulsion of His holy nature against sin. Sin cannot exist in His presence. His wrath must strike. Though He waits long, the debt must be paid and always with compound interest. There is only one way to escape God's wrath; that is, to turn from sin.

2. Removed them out of His sight. The land of Palestine is regarded as the land of God's sight; that is, the place of His manifested presence. Their national identity was blotted out forever. These people are still scattered among the nations, and as a separate nation doubtless they will never return to their land. The judgment was severe, but not more so than the sins merited, God had waited long. The despising of His grace must eventually work ruin. What judgment must fall upon the people today who reject His grace and mercy!

Coal Output in Alberta

The province of Alberta, with 5,927,270 tons of coal mined during 1921, provided the third largest production of coal in the history of the province. Of the total of 5,927,270 tons mined, 3,429,960 were shipped to points in Alberta, while 1,914,156 were exported outside the province in Canada, and 133,832 tons to the United States.

Making Speech Visible

Principle of New Invention is Similar to Phonograph

A wonderful new invention called the Lioretgraph enables one to make accurate tracings upon permanent records of actual vibrations of sounds in articulated speech. The instrument is worked by motor power. When a vowel sound is uttered the room becomes full of vibrations, and each different sound gives vibrations of a different shape. In the presence of the Lioregraph a person saying "Ah" would record upon paper a wobbly, symmetrical line. The principle involved is similar to that of the phonograph but, by means of delicate mechanism, the effects of speech are enlarged an enormous number of times. It is believed that with this new invention, aided by mathematical formulae already in use, it will be possible ultimately to read and translate any foreign or unknown tongue of which these lines are the record.

Murdock's Straight Reply

Tells Laborites He Favors Government Retention of C. N. R.

James Murdock, federal minister of labor, has replied to charges made against him in the trades and labor council, says a Hamilton dispatch. Mr. Murdock asks the council not to place much reliance on the reports of a Toronto paper concerning him and announces that he is in favor of the public ownership and operation of Canada's 22,000 miles of nationally-owned railways, and believes that they will be under public ownership. As to his reported opposition to unemployment insurance, he says he favors doing everything possible to furnish employment rather than insurance against unemployment.

Increase Shipping at Vancouver

Fifty-three deep-sea ships, not including the big vessels that ply between Vancouver and San Francisco, is the record of the port of Vancouver for the month of January. For the whole of 1921 the number of deep-sea ships arriving in Vancouver was 389, compared with 336 vessels in the preceding twelve month. Coastwise local and foreign, the arrivals in 1921 were 11,485.

Dentists Saved Them

At an orphanage in Boston, measles, scarlet fever, mumps and other diseases of children annually afflicted about one-third of the 325 inmates. Canadian Wool Sold

The Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers last year sold four million pounds of wool, practically all going to Canadian mills. There is being developed by Canadian growers a Canadian market for wool products, and in addition there has been quite an improvement in the market, with a better demand and rising prices.

Making Bread At Home

BY LORETTO C. LYNCH

An Acknowledged Expert in All Matters Pertaining to Household Management.

Too many young housekeepers will attempt to make most anything except bread. Yet, the making of a couple of loaves of bread is far less complicated than the making of even a simple cake.

Suppose you try to make a couple of loaves. You will want two tin loaf-pans. These will cost about fifteen cents each. You will like to have a large mixing bowl and the usual half-pint measuring cup and standard tea and tablespoons.

In using yeast, follow directions. Remember that yeast is a plant. In order to live and grow it requires food, air, heat, moisture. Like the mushroom, it requires no light. In growing, yeast gives off bubbles of gas, and this gas makes the bread rise. If you pour boiling water on your cake of yeast instead of the lukewarm water the recipe calls for, you will kill it just as surely as you would kill a delicate little fern. And once killed, it will not make the bread rise.

To make two loaves of white bread, into the mixing bowl put one level teaspoon of salt, the same quantity of sugar and half a tablespoon of butter or lard. Pour half a cup of hot water over these ingredients.

When the butter is melted, pour in half a cup of cold water. Stir half a cake of compressed yeast in two tablespoons of lukewarm water until it may be poured. Test the liquid in the mixing bowl to ascertain if it is just lukewarm. This may be done by letting a drop fall on the tender part of the wrist. If right in temperature, add the yeast mixture. Then beat in enough flour to make a batter. Beat this for several minutes to help incorporate the air necessary for the growth of the yeast. Then add enough more flour to make a dough stiff enough to be handled.

Toss on a lightly floured board, and with floured hands knead in enough flour so that when the dough is pressed in with the finger it quickly rebounds, as does a rubber ball. Roughly, about three minutes' kneading will be required for this quantity. About one-fourth cup of flour will be required for kneading in after the dough is on the board.

Run the water over the dough ball for a second and then place it back in the mixing bowl. Set the bowl into a dish pan of warm water and place a clean, warm cloth over all. Let rise either over night or about seven hours during the day. Then reknead, shape into loaves and place in well greased pans. Let rise in a warm—not hot—place for about half an hour. Bake in a hot oven about forty-five minutes, turning the loaves frequently so that they may brown evenly. Greasing over the top of the loaf before baking aids in giving the much desired crisp, brown crust.

The first mixing takes about ten minutes after one has a little practice, and the second kneading and shaping takes about five minutes.

Just in Time

"Father, there is a man crying outside. May I give him a nickel?"

"Certainly, my son, here is a nickel. You are very charitable. What is the man crying about?"

"He's crying, 'Fresh roasted peanuts, 5 cents a bag,'" answered the son, as he hurried from the house.

City fogs are said to cause England more loss in a year than does unemployment.

Germans Will Build Big Airship

Soon to Begin Work on Dreadnought Type for U.S. Navy

German engineers and workmen who were forbidden by the armistice to continue the construction of airships are expected soon to begin work on the dreadnought type of Zeppelin for the United States navy.

The new airship will be the largest in the world and will require six months to build. The United States will supply a part of the raw materials. United States officers will design the construction and dimensions of the motors, which are expected to produce a speed hitherto unattained in this type of aircraft.

One merchant in Siberia has been known to purchase as many as a million squirrel skins in a single season.

Dominions Should Help In Empire Development Says Lord Beaverbrook

London.—Lord Beaverbrook, speaking in London advanced the suggestion that the Dominions should be entrusted, in certain cases with the responsibility of helping the development of colonial possessions of Great Britain, thus permitting the Imperial Government to conserve its energies for new undeveloped fields. The Dominions, he said, would thus be able to appreciate the problems and difficulties which Great Britain has handled during long years of administration for the colored races.

Lord Beaverbrook suggested that Canada might administer the West Indies. He said he believed the experiment would have a wonderful influence on the relations between the West Indies and Great Britain. He pointed out that the West Indies were in the area subject to the Monroe Doctrine, but asserted that the Monroe Doctrine would not operate so heavily against Canada as it might against Great Britain.

Emphasizing the argument that imperial solidarity depended upon immediate prosperity, Lord Beaverbrook contended that too high a value was being placed on the restoration of trade with Central Europe. He considered emigration to the Dominions out of the question as commodity prices were below the cost of production and it would be useless, for instance, to send Englishmen to Western Canada while wheat was only a dollar a bushel.

FORECAST OF LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM ANNOUNCED BY NEW GOVERNMENT

Ottawa.—In the Speech from the Throne read by the Governor-General, the Liberal Government announced its legislative programme for the session. The speech refers to the fact that Canada has not escaped the world-wide industrial depression, but expresses the opinion that observers of the business barometer "feel that the worst is about over and that at an early date we may look for a substantial revival of activity."

In this regard it speaks of the unemployment measures already undertaken by the Government. It announces further that:

(1) Communications have been opened with other countries for an extension of Canadian trade and the widening of Canadian markets.

(2) Conferences have been arranged between the railway authorities with respect to the reduction of rates on basic commodities.

(3) It is intended at an early date to co-ordinate the Government-owned railway systems with a view to increased efficiency and economy.

(4) An immigration policy will be adopted to attract new settlers.

(5) Parliament will again be consulted regarding re-establishment and medical treatment of returned soldiers.

(6) Negotiations have been opened with the western provinces for transfer of natural resources.

(7) A bill will be introduced creating a department of defense.

(8) The treaties adopted at the Washington disarmament conference will be submitted to Parliament for ratification.

(9) Changes will be made in the customs tariff.

The speech further indicates that representatives from Canada will attend the Genoa economic conference and that Canadian representatives are to be appointed to meet U.S. representatives on the question of mail communication.

Fiume Blockaded By Official Order

Citizens Disarmed and Strangers Forbidden to Enter City

Fiume.—A virtual blockade was thrown around Fiume by Italian Commissioner Castelli who issued orders forbidding the entrance into that city of any but Fiume citizens and ordering the disarming of all private persons.

Those who participated in the recent conflicts which led to the overthrow of President Zanella's Government together with all strangers having no legitimate business in the city will be sent out en masse, according to Commissioner Castelli's orders, so that Italy can redeem the pledge given to the Jugo-Slavs in the treaty of Rapallo, declaring Fiume a free state.

Want to Meet Lloyd George

Moscow.—Nikolai Lenine, after a long rest in the country, spoke before a congress of the metal workers, and expressed a desire personally to go to Genoa and meet Prime Minister Lloyd-George face to face.

Wheat for Sufferers

Ottawa.—The Canadian committee of the Save the Children Fund, Russian relief, have accepted an offer of one or more cars of wheat from Saskatchewan.

Calgary.—More than 40,000 spectators attended professional hockey games played in Calgary during the past season.

France Suffers from Storms

Violent Gales Cause Property Damage and Loss of Life

Paris.—Nearly all France has suffered heavily from the unusually violent storm which began three days ago, causing heavy material damage and considerable loss of life, and the efforts of which were still being severely felt today in interruption of communications and destruction along the coasts, particularly in the northern departments whence come reports of numbers of persons killed and injured.

On all sides, telegraph and telephone lines were blown down, cutting communications generally. The storm off the coast stopped virtually all marine traffic, and steamship communication between France and England was rendered impossible. A number of fishing boats were wrecked and one of them, the Marie Therese, is reported to have sunk with the loss of 15 lives.

League May Assemble in Canaad

Ottawa.—The Dominion executive of the G.W.V.A. at the conclusion of its meeting forwarded an invitation to Field Marshal Earl Haig, grand president of the British Empire Service League, to designate Ottawa as the meeting place of the league in 1923. The G.W.V.A. is the Canadian unit of the league.

It is expected that if Earl Haig accepts the invitation that the delegates from the Mother Country and the other Dominions will tour Canada following the formal sessions of the conference.

Government Criticised By Meighen Over The Appointment Of Speaker

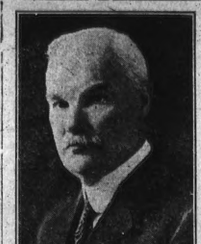

Ottawa.—The first session of the fourteenth parliament of Canada opened with the swearing in of members and the signing of the roll. On the first item of business of the Commons the election of Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, member for Gaspe, as Speaker, the Government was taken to task by the leader of the opposition, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen.

The Government, said Mr. Meighen, had taken unto itself the functions of parliament. It was the right of parliament and not of the Government or the Prime Minister, to say who should be Speaker. Yet on the day the new cabinet was announced, the Premier had also announced that Hon. Mr. Lemieux would be the new Speaker of the House. Mr. Meighen agreed with all that the Prime Minister had said with regard to the qualifications of Mr. Lemieux for the position of Speaker.

The leader of the opposition also criticized the Government for departing from the custom of promoting the deputy-speaker to the rank of Speaker. This practice had been followed for years past, but the present Government had seen fit to depart from it, despite the fact that George Boivin, member for Shefford, had all the qualifications necessary and in addition had served with such satisfaction as deputy-speaker that the choice of him as Speaker would have given eminent satisfaction.

The Prime Minister and Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressives, voiced appreciation of Mr. Lemieux in respect to his lengthy parliamentary experience and his qualifications for the position of Speaker. Mr. Crerar caused an outburst of laughter when he prefaced his remarks by stating that he spoke "for this delapidated annex of the Liberal party," a phrase which had been used last year by Right Hon. Mr. Meighen in referring to Mr. Crerar and his followers.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux was declared elected by acclamation and taking the chair, expressed his gratification of the honor which was been conferred on him and said it would be his pleasure to serve the House, not as a party man, but as a servant of parliament and of the country.

Britain May Sell Airship Fleet

London Times Says Material Being Handed to Disposal Board

London.—In consequence of India, South Africa and New Zealand having refused the Imperial Government's invitation for co-operative backing in the projected Imperial air service, the Government has abandoned the intention of keeping up the airship fleet provisionally until June and is now handing over the material, lock, stock and barrel to the disposal board.

According to the Times, which makes the announcement, the board will have the option of selling everything intact to a foreign country or holding the airships, hangars, etc., in the possibility of forming a corporation to operate services privately.

Ontario Liquor Laws

No Intention of Making Any Change, Says Premier Drury

Toronto.—To a delegation of the Dominion Alliance interviewing the Ontario Government, Premier Drury reiterated his previous declarations that the Government had no intention at present of making any changes either to "loosen or tighten" the Ontario Temperance Act, but would do its utmost to see that the law as it stands at present is carried out.

Rev. Ben Spence referred to the presentation of the 200,000 petition by the Moderation League asking for a less stringent temperance law, remarking that petitions were easily obtained. "I think," he went on, "that I could get a petition with as many names on it asking to have the attorney-general hanged."

Russian Mennonites May Go To Texas

Planning to Settle Near Fellow Worshippers from Canada

El Paso, Texas.—Ninety thousand Mennonites from Russia may join their fellow worshippers from Canada who have started for Bustillos, Chihuahua, Geo. Hieberth, of Long Beach, Calif., announced. He said he was representing Russian Mennonites, who also wanted to locate in Mexico. He had made arrangements to purchase land for them in Chihuahua, near that owned by their co religionists from Canada.

Suffrage for Women in Britain

London.—By a vote of 208 to 60, the House of Commons permitted Lord Robert Cecil to introduce a bill designed to extend suffrage to women on the same terms as to men. The division on the question of the bill's introduction resulted from the opposition of Col. Martin Archer-Shee, who said the measure would enfranchise 5,000,000 women. After the division was taken, the bill was given its first reading.

Champion Steer at Brandon Fair

Brandon, Man.—A carload made up of about 250 of the choicest birds in Manitoba will be sent to the Chicago International show this year by the Manitoba Poultry Breeders' Association. This was decided at the annual banquet of the members.

A fine Aberdeen-Angus steer, owned by J. I. Turner, of Carroll, was adjudged grand champion steer of the winter fair.

Plan for Farm Labor

Regina, Sask.—In anticipation that between 3,000 and 3,500 men will be required for seeding operations on the farms in Saskatchewan, the Bureau of Labor is laying its plans to provide that amount of help for the farmers this coming season, it is announced here. The estimated number of men required is about the average of the past few years.

Lady Member Changes Rule

Ottawa.—The entrance of a lady member into the halls of Parliament, necessitated a change in the speech from the throne. In past Parliaments the speech has always opened with the words: "Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate; Gentlemen of the House of Commons."

The speech today was addressed to: "Honorable Members of the Senate; Members of the House of Commons."

The lady member was responsible for the change.

Brandon Winter Fair

Many Honors Go to Saskatchewan Exhibitors

Brandon, Man.—With the exception of one section, the Brandon Mental Hospital obtained a first for swine in every section in an exceptionally strong exhibit in an G n rnocneeu,b strong exhibit at the winter fair here.

The biggest exhibit of sheep ever shown at a winter fair gave Professor Shaw, of Saskatoon, a difficult time. Thomas Zachery of Austin, won the grand championship for sheep with a Hampshire ram.

For stallions in this class foaled in 1919, first place went to "Duncan," owned by Dr. C. Head, Regina.

Aristocrats As Settlers

Russian Nobility Coming to Settle on Prairie Farms

Vancouver. — Russian aristocrats, dispossessed of their lands by the revolution, are coming to Canada to settle on prairie farms, according to H. J. Loughran, colonization agent of the C.P.R. at Vancouver.

The pioneer of the movement, Count A. Koulkolevski, is already established with his family near Bassano, Alta., and 10 families to whom he introduced the subject are coming in May, says Mr. Loughran.

"Although an aristocrat to the finger tips, Count Koukolevski showed by his conversation when here that he has a thoroughly practical knowledge of the farming industry," said Mr. Loughran, and he states that the other people are equally well informed along practical lines.

"Owing to the similarity of the prairie country to the Russian steppes, it seems to me these are very good people to get on our Canadian lands," Mr. Loughran added.

Dividing the Revenue

Manitoba Will Divide Income Tax Receipts With Cities and Towns

Winnipeg.—Twenty-five per cent. of the revenue derived from the proposed provincial income tax will be turned over to the city of Winnipeg and the towns and municipalities of the province, according to a decision made by the Norris Government in caucus. The refund would be made at the end of each fiscal year.

This decision, it is said, will make the passage of the bill through the House almost certain. Much of the opposition to a provincial income tax was from this city, towns and municipalities who demanded a share of it.

Report on Hospitals

Regina.—A comprehensive report of the hospitals conventions held in Regina last fall has been printed and is being distributed to members of the associations and others interested in hospital work throughout the province. The booklet contains reports of the proceedings of the conventions of the Western Canada Hospitals' Association, the Saskatchewan Hospital Association and the Western Canada conference of the Catholic Hospitals' Association.

Docking Space Taken

Montreal.—Almost every available foot of docking space in the harbor of Montreal has now been leased for 1922 season. If the present mild spell holds it is thought by experts that the opening of navigation this year may rival that of last year when the first ship came in on March 29.

Supply Much Antitoxin

Regina.—Antitoxin supplied by the Provincial Government in the province of Saskatchewan last month, cost the Department of Health $451. A total of 3,900,000 units was distributed.

Canada's Fire Losses Heavy

Property Damage in 1921 Over Forty-Five Million

Ottawa.—Fire losses in Canada for 1921 amounted to $5.22 per capita as compared with $0.90 per capita in Great Britain, according to information made public by the Dominion Fire Commissioner. During the year the 25,916 fires reported to the department of insurance occasioned property damage amounting to $45,015,930, exclusively of incalculable loss arising from forest fires, the commissioner points out. The 1921 fire loss, of which approximately $34,000,000 or 75 per cent. was covered by insurance constitutes a substantial increase over the losses of the three previous years. In 1920 the loss amounted to $28,745,590; in 1919, $25,361,240; and in 1918, $33,817,050. During 1921 the fire losses in Great Britain only amounted to $36,400,000.

By provinces the distribution of fire losses during 1921 was as follows:

Alberta, $2,875,000 or $4.95 per capita; British Columbia, $3,050,000 or $5.82 per capita; Manitoba, $2,864,000 or $4.67 per capita; New Brunswick, $2,725,982 or $7.02 per capita; Nova Scotia, $3,177,000; or $6.06 per capita; Ontario, $15,444,817 or $5.28 per capita; Prince Edward Island, $216,478 or $2.44 per capita; Quebec, $18,897,653 or $4.64 per capita; and Saskatchewan, $3,755,000 or $4.93 per capita.

The amount of money spent by the Dominion and Provincial Governments upon fire prevention in 1921 amounted to $125,000, all of which, with the exception of $12,000, was raised by a tax upon insurance companies.

Calgary Rider Makes New World's Record

Takes Pony Over Six Foot Jump at Brandon Fair

Brandon, Man.—The world's record for high jumping ponies under 13.2 hands was broken at the winter fair when Calgary Lass, owned and ridden by Louis Welsh, the 14-year-old son of Peter Welsh, of Calgary, cleared the bars at six feet. The worlds record for ponies was 5 feet 2 inches.

Mademoiselle, the 17-year-old wonder horse, also owned by Mr. Welsh, and ridden by his son, topped the bars at 6 feet 10 inches.

Denies the Allegation

Winnipeg.—Characterizing it as an "unjust reflection on Winnipeg," Alderman W. B. Simpson, chairman of the unemployed relief committee, stated that no men have been shipped out of Winnipeg for Toronto.

A dispatch from Toronto declared that 14 men claiming to have been given sandwiches and railway fare from Winnipeg, applied for relief in that city.

Belgian Professor Working on Farm

Chatham.—Henri Bergan, a Belgian, and former professor of moderna at the Belgian University, at one time postmaster of the general post-office at Brussels, who had been working as a laborer on a farm near this city, will return to his native land in the near future. He came out to Canada on a sightseeing tour and intended to pay his expenses by tutoring.

Reasons Are Given For U. S. Refusal To Attend Genoa Conference

Washington.—Refusal of the United States to participate in the Genoa conference may be viewed as the first step in a campaign of "tactful pressure" to promote economic rehabilitation of Europe, it was said by a high official of the rehabilitation committee. It should not be regarded, this official said, as an indication of the United States' desire to hold aloof from the grave problems confronting European nations.

Secretary Hughes' note to Italy conveying the declination of the United States of the intention to participate in the Genoa meeting should be interpreted, he said, rather as an expression of willingness to aid whenever it was felt that its aid could be rendered effectively.

The United States cannot afford to enter into a situation where the help expected from it cannot be given, officials explained, adding that the United States Government must be viewed as holding its support in abeyance until such time as the European nations "get down to brass tacks," in the matter of setting their houses in order.

Economic problems regarded by this country as of supreme importance in the consideration of methods of world rehabilitation, include principally the re-arrangement of German reparations and balancing of budgets by certain foreign nations.

With consideration of these questions in the view of the United States, it was said, there could be no practical attempt at world-wide economic re-adjustment.

Mounted Police Under Militia Branch

Ottawa.—Orders-in-council providing for the transfer of departments of the government service, some of these having been passed by the last Government and others by the King administration were tabled in the House. Provision was made in them for transferring the Government printing and stationery office from the department of the secretary of state to the department of labor; transferring the mounted police to the department of justice, and again to the department of militia; and transferring the naval services to the department of militia. The latter two orders were passed by the present Government and approved on Feb. 10 of this year.

Keep on Serving

Men in Public Life Must Do Their Best, Says Hon. Chas. Dunning

Saskatoon.—Bringing a message of cheer that while the province was going through dark financial times the future looked brighter, Hon. Charles A. Dunning, provincial treasurer and minister of municipal affairs, was the chief speaker of the day at the annual convention of the Saskatchewan rural municipal convention.

Mr. Dunning was given an enthusiastic reception by the seven hundred people attending the convention and in the course of his address urged the municipal officials to continue in the task of duty and service to the communities they represented.

"We are going through strange times," he said. "The people of the world are exhibiting a great impatience at the men who are in public life, whether it be municipal, provincial, dominion or empire. It is the natural result of the hysteria of the past few years. There is only one thing for those in public life to do: Keep on serving. In this way the world will be saved. It will not be saved by theorists and shouters but by those who stick to their job, do their duty and serve with the best that is in them."

The convention disposed of a large amount of business considering principally resolutions from the different municipal councils. The equalization of taxation report from the representatives of the rurals on the commission was fully discussed.

T. H. Moffatt, of Viceroy, was selected president of the association for this year with R. J. Moffatt, of Bradwell, as vice-president. The district directors elected were as follows: R. Douglas, Redvers; J. J. Lamb, Ogema; W. J. Haley, Vanguard; R. N. Parker, Togo; G. H. Hummel, Nokomis; E. S. Carroll, Asor.

Wheat Pool for U.S.

American Wheat Growers Plan Orderly Marketing Programme

Kansas City.—An American wheat growers' exchange, representing ten States which have already taken steps to establish "an orderly marketing programme" for grain was proposed in a tentative draft of a marketing plan drawn up by representatives of the National Wheat Growers' Association and the Northwest Wheat Growers here. The States concerned are Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Nebraska, Colorado, Montana, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and North Dakota.

The plan contemplates control of a wheat pool of 100,000,000 bushels. Conferees at the meeting said it was hoped to have the plan in operation in time to handle this year's crop.

Under the plan as drawn today, trustees will be elected from each State association to fix zones for marketing. Each zone would have a central marketing city.

Medical Supplies for Famine

London.—It was reported that the cabinet had decided it was unable to sanction a proposed loan of £350,000 to the Russian Government for famine relief, but that it would put medical supplies at the disposal of the existing organizations in Russia to assist in the campaign against typhus.

Premier Martin Returns

Regina—Premier Martin has returned to Regina after an extended stay in Eastern Canada. He stated that a letter would be drafted in a few days, conveying Saskatchewan's reply to Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King on the question of returning the western provinces' natural resources.

Date for Trans-Canada

Montreal.—May 11 has been fixed by the Canadian Pacific Railway for the re-opening of the schedule of the Trans-Canada Limited, the trans-continental flier which will travel daily between Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver.

Quebec.—Arthur Sauve, leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Assembly, introduced a motion favoring proportional representation.

Mining Activity in Yukon

Rich New Strikes of Silver Reported From Dawson City

Dawson City, Y.T.—Rich new silver strikes have been made in Kenom Hill. Recent arrivals from that district report that high-grade veins have been opened on the Croesus, Crystal Gulch, Gambler Gulch, Slate Creek and Stone Claims. The Slate Creek Company are opening up a vein of steel galena ore at a depth of 65 feet.

The Yukon Gold Company is shipping 3,000 tons of ore this winter from vein No. 9 on the Rico claim. At a depth of 300 feet the ore proves richer than ever. Another vein has been opened up a mile away on the same claim facing Faro Gulch. It has high-grade ore at a depth of 70 feet.

On the Sadie claim the Treadwell people have two shafts down about 100 feet. Treadwells have several million tons blocked out for removal from the McQuoit-Clenclop claims adjoining. This will be taken out next winter for shipment. The vein there continues down solid with an average width of three feet of solid ore, assaying 200 to 500 ounces of silver and lower grade ore on the sides.

It is expected that the population of Mayo camp which has already nearly half the people of the Yukon Territory will be more than doubled this summer. The White Pass Company is starting construction of a new steamer at Mayo to help handle ore and other business for the camp.

Irish Free State Bill

Discussion in House of Lords on First Reading

London.—The Irish Free State Bill formally passed its first reading in the House of Lords. The debate showed a disposition by Lord Carson, the Marquis of Salisbury and the Marquis of Lansdowne to endeavor to amend the treaty between Great Britain and Ireland.

The Marquis of Lansdowne, who broke his long parliamentary silence to intervene in the debate, complained that the treaty had been thrown at the heads of the lords to take or leave, but with a plain indication of what might happen in the latter event.

Hudson Joins Liberals

Ottawa. — The Government's strength in the House was added to when it became known that Hon. A. B. Hudson, former attorney-general of Manitoba, and who was elected as an Independent Progressive, had asked for and had been allotted a seat among the Liberals. Hon. Mr. Hudson is in the front row of Government benches, and has as his seat mate Hon. A. K. MacLean, senior member for Halifax.

Political Changes in Britain

London.—It is expected that Right Hon. Edward Shortt, K.C., home secretary, will be elevated almost immediately to the judicial bench, and that Right Hon. Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, will succeed him at the Home Office.

the carrying out of duties under the act. Grants to the institutes will remain as in the past, the only change with respect to finances being that the expenses of the annual convention will not be met by the government. The amendments aim to provide for a greater freedom and independence of the women's institutes, and the enlargement of the extension work which has been carried on in the past by making this available to all women's organiztions.

ROSS W. SNYDER MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

Mr Ross Snyder, brother of Mr R. A. Snyder of town met with a nasty accident last week in Calgary on the Fourth street hill, when he ran his car into a telephone post at the side of the road and the car overturned. The weather was foggy, and Ross was operating his car on the side of the grade when he ran into a guy wire of the post and the car swerved. He was not badly injured.
